

EXHIBIT B

This solicitation includes the Department of Labor (DOL) wage determinations specified below. In order that this solicitation may be accessed electronically, the following information has been extracted from the wage determinations listed below and identifies the occupations of service employees that would typically be employed on this type of a solicitation. This information should be considered when submitting an offer. The DOL wage determinations listed below shall be included in their entirety in any awarded contract resulting from this solicitation.

Wage Determination No. 2003-0344 Rev 2, dated 02/02/2005

Employed on U.S. Department of the Interior contracts only.

Area: Alaska, Statewide

Occupation Airplane Pilot:

Helicopters	Minimum Daily Wage:	$172.26
Multi-Engine	Minimum Daily Wage:	$203.84
Single Engine	Minimum Daily Wage:	$170.01

Daily Rate cannot be computed to an hourly rate

All occupations listed above receive the following benefits:

1. Vacation: 2 weeks paid vacation after 1 year of service with a contractor or successor; 3 weeks after 15 years, Length of service includes the whole span of continuous service with the present contractor or successor, wherever employed, and with the predecessor contractors in the performance of similar work at the same federal facility. (Reg. 29 CFR 4.173).

2. Uniform Allowance: If employees are required to wear uniforms in the performance of this contract (either by the terms of the Government contract, by the employer, by the state or local law, etc.), the cost of furnishing such uniforms and maintaining (by laundering or dry cleaning) such uniforms is an expense that may not be borne by an employee where such cost reduces the hourly rate below that required by the wage determination. The Department of Labor will accept payment in accordance with the following standards as compliance:

The contractor or subcontractor is required to furnish all employees with an adequate number of uniforms without cost or to reimburse employees for the actual cost of the uniforms. In addition, where uniform cleaning and maintenance is made the responsibility of the employee, all contractors and subcontractors subject to this wage determination shall (in the absence of a bona fide collective bargaining agreement providing for a different amount, or the furnishing of contrary affirmative proof as to the actual cost), reimburse all employees for such cleaning and maintenance at a rate of $3.35 per week (or $.67 cents per day). However, in those instances where the uniforms furnished are made of "wash and wear" materials, may be routinely washed and dried with other personal garments, and do not require any special treatment such as dry cleaning, daily washing, or commercial laundering in order to meet the cleanliness or appearance standards set by the terms of the Government contract, by the contractor, by law, or by the nature of the work, there is no requirement that employees be reimbursed for uniform maintenance costs
